

Bill Spencer is a parent educator who has worked as a teacher, counselor and principal in the public schools for over 30 years. He is a Certified Positive Discipline Associate Trainer providing workshops for both teachers and parents. He works with schools throughout the state helping them develop safe school plans to create a more positive school climate. He is a "Parent Coach" helping parents with their individual parenting concerns. Coaching sessions can take place in person or by phone. The service is free and confidential for San Luis Obispo County residence. Bill offers support and encouragement while helping individuals meet the demanding job of being a parent in today's world. Bill's hope is to assist parents through their journey of parenthood and helping parents create a plan to meet the needs of both parent and child. Bill is married to a first grade teacher and they have two grown daughters.
