

Curious Parent Forum

Why Reading Matters and How to Get Your Kid to Love it

The Curious Parent Forum is a one-hour forum that provides parents the opportunity to get answers to questions they may be curious about. Parenting is far from easy, and often times there is so much information at our fingertips that it can be confusing and overwhelming. The C.P.F. allows parents the opportunity to ask local experts direct questions about relevant parenting topics.

Come join us at the local Arroyo Grande Library for this month's guest expert!

Learn how reading and literacy positively impacts your child's development. Explore ways to engage your child in reading and foster a love for story time!

Guest Expert: Margaret Kensinger-Klopfer – MLIS, Coordinating Librarian Youth Services, County of San Luis Obispo Public Libraries

Margaret Kensinger-Klopfer is the Coordinating Librarian for Youth Services for the County of San Luis Obispo Public Libraries. Margaret has worked in a variety of libraries from the National Achieves Records Administration in Washington DC to the University of Maryland, but her passion is working with children and families through the public library system. Margaret holds a B.A. in English Literature from Saint Mary's College of Notre Dame, India and an M.L.I.S in Library and Information Science from the University of Maryland, College Park.
