Family Meeting

A virtual parenting workshop to learn about family meetings and how they are a tool for ongoing communication and problem solving

We'll cover strategies that are practical, effective, and research-based.

- Learn about all the life skills family meetings encourage in children, which include life skills for good character.
- Foster accountability in safe environments; children will learn they will be supported in times of mistakes rather than blamed and shamed.
- Create a family unit that has an atmosphere of connection and belonging
